Article VI: Code of Conduct

I. Disclosure of Information and Non-Disclosure Agreements A. Associates shall be at liberty to report only matters regarding:

1. Policy changes
2. Curriculum changes
3. Information on teaching
4. General academic relations

B. It is the right of all associates to either disclose or withhold any information of any nature set forth by Article VI, Section A.1-4. Article IV, Section A may not be used as the grounds of any complaint, protestation, or appeal of any Association rulings of those matters C. At no time shall any Associate, for any reason other than those listed in Article VI, Section I.C.1, disclose or report any information containing individual students (with or without personal identifiers), marks, scholarships, admissions, withdrawals, petitions, appeals, or any matter pertaining to a student's personal life.

1. Only in the case of a proper legal sanction or with proper written consent of the student in question may any of this information be released, and in this case only to third parties with the proper authority to receive the information in question.
2. A breach of this personal information by any Associate shall result in severe penalties, including (though not limited to):
 - a) Immediate and peremptory termination of the incumbency of all Associates found to be at fault, either directly or indirectly
 - b) A full investigation into the nature and breadth of the infringement
 - c) Further disciplinary action set forth by the Association, Faculty and Administration, and the University if need be, the latter to be determined by the Administration at their discretion

II. Duties Consistent Across all Association Positions

- A. Prepare for, and attend, all meetings. If, for a proper and justifiable reason, an associate is not able to attend, they must inform the president 24 hours prior to the meeting. In the case of missed attendance, Article VII, Section VI shall be followed
- B. Act as a liaison between the Students and the Faculty
- C. Promote and attend the Association's activities
- D. Read and be familiar with the Constitution as well as the rules and regulations of the Faculty and University, particularly those surrounding academic matters
- E. Prepare a year-end report outlining all activities, responsibilities, and proposals for the following year
- F. Support and promote three FHSSC events and attend at least two of those FHSSC events

Part III: Procedures, Operations, and Policies

Article VII: Association Meetings, Attendance Policies, and Voting Regulations

- I. The first meeting of the Association shall be held in March, at which point in time all incoming and outgoing Associates must be present. The outgoing Associates will orient the incoming Associates, via written information about the position and verbal communication
- II. The President shall call a meeting, at minimum, once every week throughout the school year. For each meeting, there shall be, at minimum, one week's notice of the date, time, and location of the meeting, as well as the agenda of that meeting
- III. As per Article VI, Section I.B., an Associate must provide notice of their pending absence 24 hours prior to the meeting. Otherwise, all meetings are mandatory
- IV. At the discretion of the Association, representatives of special committees and other interested groups may attend the meetings to make presentations. Furthermore, any interested Student or Administration may attend the meetings and participate in discussion, under the following two clauses:
 - A. Admittance to the meetings remains at the discretion of the Association, and the Association reserves the right to deny anyone access to the meetings
 - B. In the event that issues of a sensitive or confidential nature are to be discussed, the Association may declare part or all of the meeting closed, until such a time that all guests depart and proper confidentiality is restored
- V. A quorum shall consist of two-thirds of the Associates present, and to pass a motion there must be a 50%-plus-one voting approval. Positions of voting power are set forth in Article IV, Section IV(.A).
- VI. Failure to attend three meetings each month without adequate notice will result in a meeting with the President to discuss their continuing position on the Association. From there, if the problem of absences persists, the President shall move to impeach, as outlined in Article VII, Section II.E-H

Article VIII: Impeachment of an Associate

- I. Any Associate may be removed from the position they hold by a vote, outlined in Article VII, Section V, if the Associate is found to be delinquent in fulfilling their duties as outlined in the Constitution, especially that of Article VII, Section VI II. All impeachments must follow a due process, as follows:
 - A. All complaints about fellow Associates are brought to the President. If the matter at hand is regarding attendance infractions, no complaint need be brought forward
 - B. The Associate will be informed of the complaint against them in a private meeting with the President.
 - C. If the problem is of severe nature, or is persistent in character, the President will determine whether or not to move forward with impeachment
 - D. Should the President decide to pursue impeachment, they shall, at the next meeting, present their case to the rest of the Associates
 - E. Upon presenting the proposal for impeachment, the Associate in question will have a chance to present their case to the Associates

- F. At the proceeding meeting, all Associates, except for the President and the Associate in question, will vote on the matter of impeachment. A quorum must be present, as per Article VII, Section V, for the vote to be official and final in nature.
 - G. If the impeachment is approved via voting, the Associate is removed from office effective immediately after the voting, and the Vice-President of Academics shall assume the role of the vacant position until such a time as a suitable replacement can be found, or indefinitely, similar to Article X, Section I.F.
- III. All voting of impeachment shall be done in an anonymous manner.
 - IV. The result of any vote is final and may not be appealed. This is not to say that an individual Associate cannot be put to an impeachment vote more than once, so long as there is just cause for a repeat impeachment process.
 - V. All Associates who are put to an impeachment vote shall have the right to defend themselves, either verbally in meeting or via a written letter prior to voting, but all defence must be made before 24 hours of the next meeting. Otherwise defence is forfeited and voting will proceed at the following meeting.

Article IX: Resignation of an Associate Prior to Term Completion

- I. If an Associate, other than the President, wishes to resign before the presupposed incumbency outlines, a written letter with proper reasons of departure must be submitted to the President. The Associate will retain their position for another two weeks from the time and date of submitting the letter to the President before they may fully and conclusively resign from their position
 - II. If the President wishes to resign, they must inform the Executive Committee of the FHSSC as well as the Vice-President of Student Affairs prior to informing the rest of the Association. In this case, the Association will nominate and vote on who will assume the role of the President until the next election
 - III. Except in the case of the President departing, it is up to the discretion of the Association to decide whether or not a bi-election will be held to fill the position. If the position remains unfilled, the Vice-President of Academics shall carry out the duties of the role.
 - IV. All property, information, and otherwise, belonging to the Association, must be surrendered to the Association no later than the date of the official resignation

Article X: Election Policies and Procedures

- I. General Policies:
 - A. The election for the President will follow the regulations set forth in the FHSSC Constitution
 - B. The USC Councillor shall be appointed by the regulations set forth by the FHSSC
 - C. Year representative elections shall follow the regulations of:
 - 1. Year representatives II, III, IV will be conducted during the spring election time period by the Current President, incoming President, and Vice – President of Student Affairs.
 - 2. The First Year Representatives must be elected by the first week of October each year

- D. All Students of the Faculty are eligible to vote in both spring and fall elections. However, no student shall have any voting power for year representatives outside of their respective year
 - E. Elections for the Executive Associates shall be conducted by the current President, the Vice-President of Student Affairs, and the Vice-President of Promotions
 - F. Elections for the Council members barring the Soph Representative shall be conducted by the current President, the incoming President, and Vice-President of Student Affairs
 - G. The Soph Representative shall be elected by the Head Soph, President of HSSA, and an additional council VP at the discretion of the president in an interview fashion, as well as the Senior Advisor if the position is filled that year, whose appointment remains at the discretion of the President.
 - H. If it is the case that an Association position is not filled by the official start of the Association term, the Vice-President of Academics shall amalgamate the responsibilities of this vacant role with their own, until such a time as a suitable replacement can be found
- II. Procedures:
- A. Administration:
 - 1. It will be the duty of the Vice-President of Student Affairs to chair the operations of elections. If there is a conflict of interest, the President shall assume the responsibility of this role
 - 2. The responsibilities include:
 - a) Publicizing the call for nominations along with the Vice-President of Promotions and Year Representatives
 - b) Announce the official results of voting
 - c) Administrate the timing of speeches and balloting
 - d) Contact the USC to arrange for candidates to be added to the online voting ballot
 - B. Chronology:
 - 1. The campaigning periods are as follows:
 - a) For the President; the campaigning period will align with that of the USC
 - b) For the First Year Representatives, positions will be finalized by the October deadline set forth by the FHSSC
 - C. If there is only one applicant has submitted a nomination form on time, an interview shall be conducted to assess the qualifications of the candidacy in that role. It is the discretion of the interview committee to deem best fit for the position under the following guidelines:
 - a) If there is a candidate who applied for another role who was unsuccessful but is a better fit for the acclaimed position, the alternate candidate may be appointed to that role, over the acclaimed candidate in such an instance as the candidate applying for the acclaimed role is deemed by all parties present in the interview as unfit for the position, and it is in the council's best interest to consider another candidate who applied for an alternate position.
 - D. Students shall vote for the President as a part of the online USC election voting period
 - E. In the event of a tie in the voting, or the results are within a 5% margin of each other; the outgoing President shall determine the proper actions to be taken, either:
 - 1. A revote
 - 2. Another fair method of determining the outcome, sanctioned by the Association
 - F. All appointments for Vice-Presidents shall be carried out internally and selected by the outgoing President, the Incoming President, the Vice-President of Student Affairs, and the Vice-President of Promotions, along with the outgoing incumbent of that position.

1. Addendum: if the outgoing incumbent intends to return to their position (or any other), they may not sit in on interviews for those positions. This shall be consistent with Article X, Section I.D.-E.
 - G. The Vice-President of Student Affairs and the Vice President of Promotions shall be responsible for counting votes and announce winners in a timely manner
- III. Candidate Eligibility:
- A. The requirements of eligibility are set forth in the FHSSC Constitution
 - B. In order to be eligible, candidates must be currently enrolled in the Faculty, and be a full time student within the Faculty for the duration of their potential term 1. An exemption of this rule shall be made for the Ivey Liaison Officer.
 - C. Individuals running for a voting position on the FHSSC cannot serve as a voting member on any of the HSSA, KSC, or NSC
 - D. Eligible candidates cannot go on exchange during the school year. If a member of the association can demonstrate both a need for the exchange, and the ability to have all of their responsibilities fulfilled in their absence, without placing undue pressure on other members the President may use their discretion to grant exemption to this rule.
- IV. Nominations for Presidency:
- A. Nominations for the Association's President shall be completed through the completion of a nomination form.
 - B. Only nominations completed accurately and submitted on time will be considered effective
- V. Ballots:
- A. There shall be a separate ballot for each position available
 - B. The names of the candidates shall be listed in alphabetical order, by last name
 - C. Only legal names of the candidates are allowed to appear on the ballot

Article XI: Amendments to the Constitution

- I. This Constitution must be reviewed by each outgoing Association before the election of the incoming Association.
- II. Amendments may be made with a proper quorum voting of Associates at scheduled meetings
- III. No alterations or revisions shall be made to this document in any manner other than a proper voting (Article X, Section II)
- IV. It shall be the responsibility of the Vice-President of Administration to prepare a new Constitution with any amendments to be made to be put to a voting.

Article XII: Training

- I. Incoming members must complete mental health training that will be provided as a group and at the expense of the association
- II. If a member cannot attend the group session, they may seek equivalent training on their own and have it fully covered by the association, provided they have informed the President in advance.
- III. The proposed training must be completed by the last day of September, unless the President receives what they determine to be a valid reason to allow a member to delay their training.
